
SURREY SCHOOLMASTER'S "WIRELESS."

Mr. R. J. Hibberd, headmaster of the village school of Grayswood, near Haslemere, is a wireless enthusiast. He has fitted a complete wireless set in his school, and as messages are received they are written on the blackboard.

[By the courtesy of "Sunday

Mr. W. J. Hibbert, of Grayswood, a well-known amateur wireless enthusiast, gave an interesting lecture on the science to members of the Guildford Wireless Society on Monday evening, illustrating it with apparatus of his own making. Mr. W. T. Patrick presided, and announced that Mr. Hibbert has promised to give a second lecture.